

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF VIRGINIA

Richmond Division

RANDY JONES,
Plaintiff,

v.

Civil No. 3:21cv749(DJN)

UNKNOWN,
Defendants.

MEMORANDUM OPINION

By Memorandum Order entered on January 19, 2022, the Court conditionally docketed Plaintiff's civil action. (ECF No. 2.) At that time, the Court directed Plaintiff to submit an in forma pauperis affidavit and a consent to collections of filing fees form within thirty (30) days of the date of entry thereof. The Court warned Plaintiff that the Court would dismiss the action if Plaintiff failed to comply with the January 19, 2022 Memorandum Order. More than thirty (30) days elapsed and Plaintiff failed to respond the January 19, 2022 Memorandum Order. Accordingly, by Memorandum Opinion and Order entered on March 3, 2022, the Court dismissed the action without prejudice. (ECF No. 5.)

On March 23, 2022, the Court received from Plaintiff a letter motion for an extension of time and a notice of appeal. (ECF Nos. 6, 7.) Because the Court received the letter motion within twenty-eight days after the entry of the March 3, 2022 Memorandum Opinion and Order, the Court construed this submission as a motion filed pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 59(e) ("Rule 59(e) Motion"). See MLC Auto., LLC v. Town of S. Pines, 532 F.3d 269, 277–78 (4th Cir. 2008) (filings made within twenty-eight days after the entry of judgment construed as Rule 59(e) motions (citing Dove v. CODESCO, 569 F.2d 807, 809 (4th Cir. 1978))).

Plaintiff explained that he had:

been having problems with this jail receiving my paperwork regarding this civil matter. I'm also indigent so I haven't had the money to mail off the legal paper work properly.<sup>1</sup>

My release date is April 11th, 2022 and I plan on having payments and paperwork sent to you in full. With respect, I'm asking for an extension until then, that way I can contact you personally with my attorney. . . .

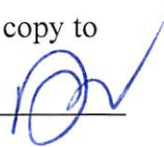

(ECF No. 6, at 1.)

Based on these reasons, by Memorandum Opinion and Order entered on April 22, 2022, the Court granted Plaintiff's Rule 59(e) Motion and vacated the March 3, 2022 Memorandum Opinion and Order. (ECF No. 10.) The Court granted Plaintiff thirty (30) days from the date of entry thereof to comply with the terms of the January 19, 2022 Memorandum Order.

More than thirty (30) days have elapsed since the entry of the April 22, 2022 Memorandum Opinion and Order. Plaintiff has not complied with the January 19, 2022 Memorandum Order. On May 2, 2022, the United States Postal Service returned the April 22, 2022 Memorandum Opinion and Order to the Court, because Plaintiff was released and failed to update the Court as to his new address. (ECF No. 11.) Since that date, Plaintiff has neither updated his address nor contacted the Court. Therefore, it appears that Plaintiff is not interested in litigating this action. Accordingly, the action will be DISMISSED WITHOUT PREJUDICE.

An appropriate Order shall issue.

Let the Clerk file a copy of the Memorandum Opinion electronically and send a copy to Plaintiff.
